Many people have asked how they can support this work, so here goes... some information first! Click here to skip straight to the practical bit. Who are we? There are 2 main ministries presented through this site. GodHelpMePlease.com is a ministry of Fresh Hope Ministries International (FHMI) directed by David and Barbara Craig. FHMI is a Charitable Trust based in Bangor, Northern Ireland. David and Barbara are just 2 ordinary people who are passionate about reaching the lost, forgotten, unloved, hurting, unwell people of the nations for Jesus. Letting them know that Jesus came, died, rose again, went to the Father and sent the Holy Spirit so that they might be fulfilled, set free and anointed to be God's chosen people for the establishment of God's kingdom here on earth through the saving power of believing and trusting in Jesus Christ. They are supported by a team of intercessors who pray and respond where appropriate to the prayer requests that come in. FHMI also supports work with the war affected children of Sierra Leone, West Africa. Currently there are over 157 children in a school in Sierra Leone. There are plans to build a purpose built Children's Centre as a base to work from to outreach into the rural areas and villages. This is an ongoing ministry to war affected children and the vision includes reaching out to other towns in Sierra Leone and eventually to other countries including neighbouring Liberia, where the extent of the affect of the war on children is as yet unquantified but is known to be as bad if not worse than in Sierra Leone. How is it supported? FHMI and GodHelpMePlease.com is solely supported by individual donations, many, by people who have been helped through the site. How can I help? Above all you help by praying for this ministry, we believe... (James 5:16) Make this your common practice: Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you can live together whole and healed. The prayer of a person living right with God is something powerful to be reckoned with.
